Nealon Quits Badly;

Voladay Wins Stake

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—Voladay, the longest priced horse in the race, won the Palace Hotel Handicap, the feature at Emeryville today.

Owing to the fact that Barney Schreiber retains an interest in Nealon, which he sold to Boots Durnell, and to Tony Faust, which he sold to Sam Hildreth, five of the seven starters in the handicap were coupled in the betting. Rapid Water, Loeisilla, and Tony Faust represented Hildreth, and Nealon and Temaco represented Durnell's colors. This bunch opened at 2 to 3, and went to the post at 2 to 5. Preyer was played from 5 to 3, and Voladay closed at 3 to 2.

To a good start Nealon shot to the front and was closely trailed by Voladay to the half, where the outsider, with Miller up, took a lead and gradually increasing it, won the stake in a gallop by six lengths, with Rapid Water second and Temaco third. Proper finished last. Nealon quit badly. Walter Miller won four of the six races.

Ascot Handicap Proves

Cin for W. H. Carey

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 9.—Fifteen thousand people saw the big chestnut horse, W. H. Carey, with Joekey W. Knapp in the saddle, win the Ascot Handicap today.

The event had $3,000 added and was worth $3,500 to the winner. The R. F. Carman entry of W. H. Carey and Arino were quoted at 3 to 1 and a ton of money was placed at these odds. The

DEVELOPS CHAMPION FENCERS

PROF. F. DARRIEULAT.

The Washington Fencing Club has been under the direction of Prof. Darrieulat as maitre d'armes for six years. "In that short time he has won an enviable reputation by good organization, skill, and hard work. He has succeeded in developing some of the best teams in the United States. These teams have defeated the strongest teams of this country, such as the New York Fencing Club, the New York Athletic Club, the Naval Academy, etc.

Scott D. Breckenridge, after two years' training under Prof. Darrieulat, succeeded last year in winning the individual championship of the United States by a wide margin.

MILITIA WRESTLERS WILL BE KEPT BUSY

Ludwig, Washington's star, was a tower of strength, as usual, for the locals. Besides effective passing he shot two goals. Fowler showed up well at center, shooting two goals and one free throw. Williams, Washington Y. M. C. A.'s captain and crack back, was probably the busiest man on the floor. Among other deeds he scored on one field goal and five free throws.

There was considerable kicking over the decisions of Referee Evans, of York. The Washington contingent claiming he was partial to his home team.

Saengers Lead District By Two Hundred Points

Recent Record Breaking Performances of German Bowlers On Their Home Alleys Increase Their Chances for Cup.

None of the teams in the District Bowling League have been successful in trying to hold down the Saengers, and the strong German quint now has a lead for the cup of over two hundred points.

This has been due largely to record-breaking totals on the home alleys, but as guests of the other clubs, they have also more than held their own, with the result that four of the team head the list of individuals. Krauss, the league leader, has held his high average of 188, and Allison has regained second place, Eckstein dropping out of the first five. Brown is celebrating his first season with the Orientals by leading that team and completing the "honor five."

Saengers Have High Game.

Saengerbund leads in high game, 1,077; high set, 3,023; strikes, 333; spares, 1,194; average of strikes and spares, and has a big lead in thousand games bowled. Krauss has high set, 635, and best average of strikes, Baum leads in spare work, with Allison and Eckstein close up. Brown's 257 is still high single game.

A merry struggle is on between Acme, Bank Clerks and Market House, for a position in the first division. The Market House boys held it, but have been passed in the past two weeks by Acme. The following averages include Wednesday's game:
